

Israeli - Jewish problem.

Back of head pressure. A long brown corridor. Con - strict, con - fuse, con - fab, - terminate. Con is a trick. Shouldn't be talking about this - I'm being a rebel, Con is - you grab 'em by the balls. It's so powerful & sure of itself it could take me over. The colour changes to grey & there's a flash of light, as I see what frightens me.

It's F w. his power and authority, and his 'suggestions'. Fear now goes to solar plexus. I am totally repressed, a burden of expectation. He's too big. I am swamped. Frightened of being submerged & that he will turn me into some thing of him. He's living his life out in me. I could become non-authentic, a parody.

So I become reactive to authority. I go around passively, waiting to be prodded. Likeness between Jewish behaviour & F. He's got one idea, & is v. energetic. ~~At~~ Always at it. Too much. He talks double Dutch. But he always knows what he wants. V. sharp, more intelligent than I am. I am under the thumb. Don't like it. Not correct.

I am responsible. Ball is in my court. I don't want to be like that. I can be direct. I don't have to be shaken. I can be available or not.

It's the fear of power, ^{over me} and my non-use of my power. An idea that I shouldn't do it, v. dangerous. Don't do it. (Back of head) you would be robbing me. Don't disturb the status quo.

I have more intelligence, so it would be dangerous for anyone else to have it, so I keep it safe. Green feeling about this. A more vital shade.

Nobody else would understand this power so I preserve & seal, conceal the power. Con - roots again.

It's all a con-trick, really. I have to fight for it. I am here.

Ident. w. 'other half'. The female in you. She just does; she fills all the empty space so there's no room for - it's full, not loose ends. Use everything. I see behind the mask of authority. It's fear. Authority must be governed by love. The mask rings hollow, unfulfilled appetite. I can feel authority in me. Female pushes up from belly. Mask is on head. Dissociated. Life energy is in chest.

Push life drive up thro' chest into head. More whole. I've got the power. What can you teach me? You'll see.

Ident. w. capable Jewish ancestor. Highly charged. Correct. Good. Keen. Image of hatchet blade which separates & distinguishes. An eye behind the blade watches the process.

In relationship w. F. it stays contained, aware, not provocative or defensive but as I am. Open, not forcible. I can learn from this being, discover what he knows. Could be v. useful. Well worth relating to, profitable to both parties. I can relieve his guilt & I can learn from ~~the~~ him.

He knows he's not made a good job, wants to make peace & good relationship, He is happy - that's what he wants.

I can deal profitably with him.

I am as confident as the Jews, but have chosen non-violence.
I am not afraid of them.

The anti-semitic in me is not convinced. I am, though. A battle for control. Atty is the female force. It empowers me.

I give it expression. What concerns me is how I behave, not them.
My best behaviour is staying centred. See clearly what can be done.
I feel powerful, strong.
